Application no. 78357/12
Đorđević v. Serbia

Dear Sir,

I refer to your application that was lodged on 30 November 2012 and registered under the number referred to above.

I write to inform you that the European Court of Human Rights, sitting in a single-judge formation (H. Jäderblom assisted by a rapporteur in accordance with Article 24 § 2 of the Convention) between 22 August 2013 and 5 September 2013, decided to declare your application inadmissible. This decision was delivered on the last-mentioned date.

The Court found that domestic remedies had not been exhausted, as required by Article 35 § 1 of the Convention, because the proceedings giving rise to the issues about which you complain are still pending before the domestic courts.

When all available domestic remedies have been exhausted you may then, if you wish, submit a new application to the Court.

This decision is final. It is not subject to an appeal either to the Grand Chamber or to any other body. The Registry is unable to provide you with any further details concerning the Single Judge's decision. Consequently, you will not receive any further correspondence from the Court in connection with this case. In accordance with the Court's instructions, the file will be destroyed one year after the date of the Single Judge's decision.

The present communication is made pursuant to Rule 52A of the Rules of Court.

Yours faithfully,
For the Court
